

"First Acrylic Painting" Grading Rubric

	Point Rating	Scale Enlargement	Value Accuracy	Color Accuracy	Media/ Craftsmanship
Student shows strong understanding and exhibits it with exceptional creativity	5	Scale, placement, and detail remains consistent with original sketch and photographed on time	Value Key supports the meaning of the work, the value key is evident in the finished work, and the underpainting is photographed on-time.	Color meaning is expressive, accurately matched to those of the color study, and photographed on-time	Exceptional care and skill is displayed in the handling of the media
Student shows strong understanding and completes objective with outstanding success	4	Scale remains consistent with original sketch	Value in the original value study is maintained and value key is evident	Color meaning is expressive, accurately matched to those of the color study	Appropriate care is given to the handling of the media
Student successfully demonstrates an understanding of the objective	3	Scale appears close but not exact or photographed late	Underpainting changes slightly from original value study or underpainting photographed late	Colors change slightly from original color study or photographed late	Weak care is given to the handling of the media or photographed late
Student attempts but fails to exhibit an understanding of a given objective	2	Scale changes from original sketch or position of objects change or original sketch missing	Values change and no longer match original value key or Value Study missing	Colors resemble but do not match those of the color study or Color Study Missing	Painting is poorly executed, damaged, or late
Student completes assignment but exhibits poor understanding and effort	1	original sketch missing, and photographed late or missing	Value changes from original Value Study, original Value Study missing, and photographed late.	Colors are unrelated to the color study, items missing, and photographed late	Painting appears unfinished